RG104 E-1 Box 160

Mr. Hiskok seems to have contracted for this and his contract must stand I suppose. Ltf

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,

November 30th 1889.

Sir.

In reply to your inquiry of the 27th inst. I have to inform you that upon the receipt and collection of a sight draft to my order on Philadelphia or New York for One hundred dollars. I will send you for your accommodation One hundred gold dollars by Express, if you so direct. The demand is enormous and the supply limited.

Respectfully yours,

O. C. Bailyhill

Superintendent.

S. N. Perry Esq.

Cash. Union Natl Bank,

La Crosse, Wis.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 160

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,
Superintendent's Office,
November 30, 1889

Sir.

In reply to your inquiry of the 27th inst. I have to inform you that upon the receipt and collection of a sight draft to my order on Philadelphia or New York for one hundred dollars. I will send you for your accommodation One hundred gold dollars by Express, if you so direct. The demand is enormous and the supply limited.

Respectfully yours,
O.C. Bosbyshell
Superintendent.

I.N. Perry Esq.
Cash. Union Nat'l Bank.
La Crosse, Wis.

[Noted in the margins:]

Mr. Hickok seems to have contracted for this and his contracts must stand I suppose. Cobb.